Local Home Staging Professional to Speak at RE/MAX of Michigan Regional Conference

BRIGHTON, MICHIGAN, February 4, 2008— Kathi Presutti, a Livingston County Accredited Staging Professional and owner of leading home staging company RE:STYLE LLC, will be speaking at the RE/MAX of Michigan Regional Conference in Traverse City, Michigan on February 8, 2008. Presutti will be sharing practical, money-making advice with hundreds of Realtors at the conference to illustrate the benefits of home staging for real estate listings.

"In this very challenging real estate market, home staging is a ray of hope for home sellers and Realtors alike," said Presutti. National statistics show that staged houses sell twice as quickly as un-staged homes.

"I have used RE:STYLE to stage because I know that a professionally staged house shows so much better," said Tim Sova, broker/owner of RE/MAX Platinum in Howell, Michigan. "Having that competitive advantage can make all the difference."

RE/MAX of Michigan is celebrating 30 years of success at its Regional Conference, held at the Grand Traverse Resort in Traverse City, Michigan. Presutti is speaking at a break-out session, one of several being offered to assist and inspire conference attendees.
